RYAN SMITH

CEO & CHAIRMAN, SMITH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP
GOVERNOR, UTAH JAZZ AND UTAH MAMMOTH
FOUNDER AND EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN, QUALTRICS
CO-FOUNDER, HALO FUND

Ryan Smith is the chairman of Smith Entertainment Group and the governor of both the NBA's Utah Jazz and the NHL's Utah Mammoth. He is also the founder and executive chairman of Qualtrics, the creator of the experience management (XM) category, and a co-founder of Halo Fund (HXCO).

Ryan and his wife, Ashley, purchased the Utah Jazz in late 2020 as part of the launch of Smith Entertainment Group (SEG), and in April 2024, brought the NHL to Utah with the purchase of a new franchise that was known as Utah Hockey Club during its inaugural season (2024-25) before being permanently branded as Utah Mammoth in Spring 2025. SEG's current portfolio also encompasses Delta Center, SEG Media, The Shops at South Town, Salt Lake City Stars (NBA G League), Utah Jazz Gaming (NBA 2K League), and other Utah-centric business ventures.

Ryan grew Qualtrics from a basement startup to one of the fastest-growing technology companies in the world, with 25 offices globally and more than 18,000 customers, including over 85 percent of the Fortune 100, and 99 of the top 100 business schools. In the private market, Qualtrics raised $400M in funding from Accel, Sequoia, and Insight Venture Partners. Three days before the company was initially scheduled to go public, SAP announced its intent to acquire Qualtrics in what was the largest private enterprise software acquisition at that time. In 2021, Qualtrics listed for an initial public offering on the Nasdaq under the ticker symbol "XM." The company was then taken private in July 2023 in a private equity buyout led by Silverlake.

In 2016, Ryan co-founded 5 For The Fight, the campaign to eradicate cancer by supporting groundbreaking cancer research. The campaign invites everyone to give $5 for the fight against cancer. The 5 For The Fight patch, donated by Qualtrics, was worn on the Utah Jazz jerseys from 2017 to 2023 and was the first philanthropic patch in the history of North American professional sports. In September 2023, Ryan announced that 5 For The Fight had achieved its goal of raising $50 million for cancer research.

Most recently in April 2025, Ryan launched a new joint venture with long-time business partner Ryan Sweeney – Halo Fund, a Utah-based investment firm that connects high growth technology companies with strategic opportunities across sports and entertainment.

Ryan graduated with a degree in business from Brigham Young University. He is married to Ashley Smith and they are the parents of five children.

ASHLEY SMITH

CO-FOUNDER, SMITH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP

OWNER, UTAH JAZZ AND UTAH MAMMOTH

CEO, SMASH DANCE ACADEMY

Ashley Smith is the co-founder of Smith Entertainment Group, parent company of the NBA's Utah Jazz and the NHL's Utah Mammoth, and founder and CEO of Smash Dance Academy.

Ashley, along with her husband, Ryan, purchased the Utah Jazz in 2020 as part of the launch of Smith Entertainment Group (SEG). They subsequently purchased, and later sold, Major League Soccer's Real Salt Lake and National Women's Soccer League's Utah Royals. In April 2024, they brought the NHL to Utah with the purchase of a new franchise known as Utah Hockey Club during its inaugural season (2024-25) before being rebranded as Utah Mammoth in Spring 2025. SEG's current portfolio also encompasses the Delta Center, SEG Media, The Shops at South Town, Salt Lake City Stars (NBA G League), and other Utah-centric sports and entertainment ventures.

In 2007, Ashley launched a dance studio in her basement, which would later become Smash Dance Academy. The academy quickly grew in reputation and moved to a corporate location in 2011 and continued to expand to the grand studio it occupies today. Smash Dance Academy serves approximately 600 students and has more than 20 faculty. It has become a cornerstone of the Utah dance community, offering diverse training and creating opportunities for local dancers to thrive in a healthy, positive environment.

Ashley is deeply involved in community initiatives, including leading the SEG Foundation. She also serves on the board of Utah First Lady Abby Cox's Show-Up Initiative.

Smith was born in Salt Lake City and raised in Las Vegas. She attended Brigham Young University, where she studied business and dance. She married Ryan Smith in 2006 and they are the proud parents of five children.

COMMUNICATIONS

KENDEL WHITE

CHIEF COMMUNICATIONS OFFICER
SMITH ENTERTAINMENT GROUP

Kendel White serves as chief communications officer for Smith Entertainment Group (SEG), where she leads the company's communications strategy, executive positioning, corporate reputation and media relations. As a member of the executive leadership team, she oversees communications across SEG's growing portfolio of sports, entertainment, media and real estate businesses, including the NBA's Utah Jazz, the NHL's Utah Mammoth, the Delta Center, SEG's campus in Sandy, Salt Lake City Stars (NBA G League) and the company's expanding real estate and development initiatives. She partners closely with owners Ryan and Ashley Smith to shape the enterprise narrative and position SEG as a global leader in sports, entertainment and experience-driven innovation.

Prior to joining SEG, White served as global vice president of communications and media relations for Universal Film, where she led executive communications and media relations for the film division. In that role, she drove communications strategy across worldwide box office reporting, industry events and crisis management while helping position the studio's most significant business initiatives, including the return to production during the pandemic, Universal's innovation in distribution and industry-leading work in DEIA and sustainability.

Before Universal, White was the content corporate communications lead for Hulu and Disney+, where she developed and executed Hulu's external communications strategy. She led executive communications for the company's senior content leadership while overseeing communications around original programming, content partnerships and corporate data reporting.

Earlier in her career, White led communications for the launch of FilmStruck at Turner Classic Movies. She also held communications roles at Turner across TNT and TBS and began her career as a senior account executive at Weber Shandwick.

A native of Atlanta, White earned a Bachelor of Arts in Journalism with a minor in Film and Theater Studies from the University of Georgia.

JEFFREY SANDERS
DIRECTOR OF HOCKEY
COMMUNICATIONS

DAVID PIPER
MANAGER OF HOCKEY
COMMUNICATIONS

RACHEL BOORSE
HOCKEY COMMUNICATIONS
COORDINATOR

On behalf of the Utah Mammoth's Media Relations Department, we hope to make your job covering the team as easy and as pleasant as possible. In order to help our operation run smoothly and make your jobs easier, we ask that you please review and adhere to the following guidelines:

DAILY PRACTICES

Practices will be held at the Select Health Ice Center unless stated otherwise. All practices are open to the media. For up-to-date information on practice times and locations, please contact Jeffrey Sanders (jeffrey.sanders@utahmammoth.com) to be included on the team's practice reminder email distribution list. A member of the PR staff will escort the media into the locker room following practice for player/coach availability.

PREGAME ACCESS

Requests for interviews prior to the game will be accommodated only upon the approval of the players and coach involved. Ahead of a 7 P.M. puck drop, Utah players can be made available from 4:30 P.M. to 5 P.M. However, the ideal time for interviews on game day is after morning skate, which is traditionally held at 10:30 A.M. (practice times and location are subject to change). Please contact Jeffrey Sanders with all player requests.

POSTGAME ACCESS

Both teams' dressing rooms will be open approximately five minutes after each game. Media attending locker room availabilities should follow Mammoth PR personnel to Elevator 4 on the 6100 side of the upper bowl as soon as the game ends. This elevator will be held for media following the conclusion of the game. The elevator will drop media in the back hallway, behind the home and visiting locker rooms. Media will wait in the back hallway until PR representatives have opened the dressing rooms.

Media will have access to the players for 30 minutes after the rooms are opened. Only working media with official credentials will be allowed into the dressing rooms. Following the player media access, Head Coach André Tourigny will be available for postgame comments in the interview room.

PRESS BOX ACCESS

Seating has been assigned to media in the Gondola (Level 6). Seating charts displaying seating assignments will be posted at media check-in and on both sides of the Gondola.

BROADCAST BOOTH POSITIONS

The home TV booth can be found in section 18, and visiting TV will be located in TV Booth 1 on the Gondola level. Both teams' radio broadcast positions are located in section 7.

GAME NOTES & STATS

Printed game notes and league stats will be made available for broadcasters. Additional materials (intermission stats, in-game notes, etc.) will be distributed to all working media throughout the game.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media credentials are issued to working media only. All media should enter Delta Center through the designated media entrance, located on the south side of the building (100 South) next to public door nine. No media access will be allowed through public doors, and all credentials are non-transferable. Any unauthorized use will subject the bearer to removal from Delta Center and confiscation of their credential. All media are required to display their credentials at all times. Please contact David Piper (david.piper@utahmammoth.com) and Rachel Boorse (rachel.boorse@utahmammoth.com) with single-game credential requests.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Still photography credentials will be issued in the same manner as media credentials. Newspapers, websites, and magazines on assignment may obtain passes by having their photo editor request single-game credentials from David Piper (david.piper@utahmammoth.com). Photo positions will be assigned by the Mammoth's team photographer, Hunter Dyke (hunter.dyke@teamseg.com), on a game-by-game basis and in accordance with league protocols and hierarchies. All photographers must comply with space assignments and shooting regulations and shoot from designated areas only. Should photographers have any questions or require any additional information regarding equipment (i.e. strobes), they are asked to please contact Hunter Dyke.

VIDEO FOOTAGE

---

Media are not permitted under any circumstances to publicize video footage of any game action, from the start of warmups to the final horn. This includes gameplay as well as fights, celebrations, and any other on-ice action between whistles. League policies mandate that broadcast rightsholders are granted exclusivity during this time, and repeated violation of this rule could result in credential revocation.

INTERVIEW VIDEOS

The Utah Mammoth media relations department will provide video and/or audio recordings of interviews with coaches and players following practices, morning skates, and games. To receive the link to those videos, please contact Rachel Boorse (rachel.boorse@utahmammoth.com).

MEDIA PARKING

---

The Utah Mammoth does not provide parking for the media. It is recommended that you walk to Delta Center, use TRAX or park in one of the paid lots near the arena.

MEDIA WORKROOM

---

The media workroom is located on Level 1. To access this space, media should take a left out of the media entrance and walk until they get to Section T on the main concourse. Take the elevator across from Section T down to Level 1. Exit the elevator and take a right on Level 1 and walk until you get to the corner tunnel. On your right, there will be a door labeled "Media Room" listed above it.

PRESS BOX

To access the press box, media should take the same elevator closest to the media workroom to Level 6. Media should exit the elevator and turn left. The gondola level with the press box will be accessible from a small flight of stairs, located just around the corner. There is a two-person, accessible lift available there, for anyone who cannot use the stairs.

The Utah Mammoth rely on media members to maintain a courteous and professional atmosphere in the press spaces at all times. Children and non-working media are not allowed in the press spaces.

NHL MEDIA SITE

Media.NHL.com is a comprehensive resource for all media members covering the Utah Mammoth and the NHL. From media contacts to player statistics to league news, the site provides countless useful resources for media. You can quickly request an account from the main login page, and we highly recommend that you create one. You will then begin to receive NHL and Mammoth-specific announcements straight to your email inbox.

We hope this outline of procedures and guidelines will assist you in your coverage of the Utah Mammoth and the National Hockey League. Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions or need any assistance.

UTAH MAMMOTH PR SITE

The Utah Mammoth PR department has built a new website to house all of its communication materials. To access game notes, press releases, availability recordings, a media guide archive and more, please visit UtahMammothPR.com.

CHRIS ARMSTRONG

PRESIDENT OF HOCKEY OPERATIONS AND ALTERNATE GOVERNOR

---

Chris Armstrong was officially named the first-ever president of hockey operations for Utah's NHL team in June 2024, shortly after helping to establish the franchise in Utah. He also serves as alternate governor for the team. In his role, Armstrong leads the Utah Mammoth and collaborates closely with ownership to oversee the day-to-day hockey and business interests of the club, as well as serving more broadly on the executive leadership team across Smith Entertainment Group.

Prior to his role with Utah, Armstrong spent nearly 14 years at THE.TEAM (formerly Wasserman), a global sports marketing and talent management company, as the Executive Vice President for Talent, Innovation, and Strategic Development. At THE.TEAM, Armstrong was instrumental in founding the firm's Canadian business in 2010 and played a key role in the acquisition strategy that established the company's hockey practice in 2018. He contributed significantly to growing the company's hockey business, maintaining high-level relationships with the League and its partners, and supporting marketing, content, and brand efforts for the agency's top NHL players. He also negotiated several contracts for prominent hockey executives over the past decade. Additionally, he was a central figure and partner in THE.TEAM's global golf practice, managing the careers of numerous star players and personalities, including Utah-native Tony Finau.

Born in Montreal, Armstrong attended McGill University, where he was recruited by then men's hockey coach Martin Raymond (Tampa Bay Lightning, Ottawa Senators) and later became a part of the Redmen (now Redbirds) coaching staff. He continued as a part-time amateur scout for McGill in the Ontario Hockey League and worked at the Centre for Sport and Law in Canada whilst completing a degree in Sport Management from Brock University. He spent the first six years of his professional career at IMG, a leading global sports and entertainment agency.

Armstrong's leadership and contributions in the sports industry have been widely recognized throughout his career. He was named to Sports Business Journal's "Forty under 40" list in 2021 and received the Canadian sports industry "5 to Watch" award in 2013 as one of the nation's top executives under 40. In 2012, Brock University honored him with his second Distinguished Alumni Award and recognized him as one of the institution's top 35 alumni in the past 35 years. Furthermore, he was the youngest executive named to the Globe and Mail's "Sports Power 50" list in 2011.

Armstrong resides in Salt Lake City and is deeply committed to his philanthropic and community engagement efforts. He serves as chair of the Canadian board for Global Citizen, a global movement to eradicate extreme poverty. While at THE.TEAM, he also helped organize several athlete-centered goodwill missions to Israel, using sport as a tool for diplomacy and to bring prominent Israeli and Palestinian youth leaders together in a conflict-free environment. Armstrong's wife, Abigail Klein, is a film and television actress in Los Angeles.

BILL ARMSTRONG

GENERAL MANAGER

Bill Armstrong became the first general manager in franchise history upon Smith Entertainment Group's acquisition of the Utah NHL team in April 2024. He was previously in the same role with the Arizona Coyotes, where he was named the club's general manager on September 17, 2020. Prior to Arizona, Armstrong spent 16 years with the St. Louis Blues where he served as the team's Assistant General Manager and Director of Amateur Scouting.

During his tenures with Utah and Arizona, Armstrong has compiled an impressive core through trades and NHL Drafts including Mikhail Sergachev, Dylan Guenther, Logan Cooley, Jack McBain, Anders Lee, Vincent Trocheck, MacKenzie Weegar, Maveric Lamoureux, Dmitri Simashev, Daniil But, Michael Hrabal, Tij Iginla, and Caleb Desnoyers. Ten players drafted under his leadership have made their NHL debuts, the third-most in the NHL over that time.

In St. Louis, Armstrong helped the Blues win their first Stanley Cup Championship in 2019, ending the third-longest championship drought in league history. During his time there, he oversaw the team's participation in the NHL Draft, and in a seven-year span, orchestrated the selections of players including Jake Allen, Joel Edmundson, Robby Fabbri, Colton Parayko, Vince Dunn, Jordan Binnington, and Robert Thomas, all of whom played roles in the Blues capturing the 2019 Stanley Cup.

Prior to joining the Blues, Armstrong spent six seasons as a coach in the American Hockey League (AHL) and East Coast Hockey League (ECHL). He began as an assistant coach with the AHL's Providence Bruins in 1998, helping lead the club to the 1999 Calder Cup Championship. Following his time in Providence, he spent two seasons (2002-04) as the head coach of the Trenton Titans of the ECHL.

A native of Richmond Hill, Ontario, Armstrong played four seasons in the Ontario Hockey League (OHL), winning the Memorial Cup with the Oshawa Generals in 1990. Drafted in the third round (46th overall) by the Philadelphia Flyers in 1990, Armstrong played nine seasons in the AHL and the International Hockey League (IHL), appearing in 543 games and collecting 74 points (10 goals, 64 assists) and 1,443 penalty minutes.

JOHN FERGUSON

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER, UTAH MAMMOTH
GENERAL MANAGER, TUCSON ROADRUNNERS

John Ferguson was named Coyotes Assistant General Manager and General Manager of the Tucson Roadrunners on Sept. 15, 2021. He moved to Utah during the franchise's relocation and remains in the same role with the Mammoth. Ferguson is also a member of the AHL Executive Committee and chair of the AHL Legal Committee.

Ferguson joined the Coyotes from the Boston Bruins, where for seven years, he served as the organization's Executive Director of Player Personnel and General Manager of the Providence Bruins (AHL). Ferguson joined the Bruins' hockey operations staff on June 27, 2014 and was named as General Manager for Providence on Sept. 15, 2016. While with the Bruins, Ferguson scouted at the professional and amateur levels with an eye to adding both prospects and roster players to the team. He also served as an advisor in evaluating potential trades, signings, and other transactions while being part of the team's 2019 run to the Stanley Cup Final.

The Montreal native brings a wealth of experience to the Mammoth front office, having run every facet of a hockey operations department during his career and being a part of three Presidents Trophy teams with the St. Louis Blues (2000), San Jose Sharks (2009) and Bruins (2020). Ferguson previously served for six seasons as the Director of Pro Scouting for the Sharks (2008-14), four-plus seasons as Vice President and General Manager of the Toronto Maple Leafs (2003-08) where he was the last Leafs GM to win a Game 7. He also served six seasons as Assistant General Manager and Director of Hockey Operations with the Blues (1997-2003). He has also been both an amateur and professional scout for the Ottawa Senators.

In 2007, Ferguson served as a member of Team Canada's management group at the 2007 IIHF World Championship in Russia. He collaborated with Steve Yzerman in selecting Canada's unbeaten gold medal roster which was the youngest team to ever win a World Championship.

Ferguson played college hockey at Providence College where he served as an assistant captain and was an Academic All-American, graduating magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Sciences degree in Business Administration.

He was drafted by the Montreal Canadiens as a 12th round selection in the 1985 NHL Entry Draft and played four seasons at the AHL level with Sherbrooke, Peoria, Fredericton, and New Haven. Ferguson earned his Juris Doctor (J.D.) in 1995, graduating cum laude from Suffolk University Law School. In 1996, he was admitted to the Massachusetts Bar, after spending both previous summers at the NHL offices in Manhattan in the legal and hockey operations department.

He and his wife Stephanie have four children, sons Johnny and Nicholas and daughters Emily and Grace.

DAVID LUDWIG

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

David Ludwig is the Assistant General Manager of the Utah Mammoth. He transferred with the franchise from Arizona where he originally joined the Coyotes in December 2020 as the team's Director of Hockey Operations & Salary Cap Compliance. He was promoted to his current role on February 14, 2024.

In this capacity, Ludwig advises General Manager Bill Armstrong with all facets of the hockey operations department, including salary cap management, contract negotiations, strategic roster planning, player salary arbitration and compliance with all issues pertaining to the NHL/NHLPA Collective Bargaining Agreement. He also assists in the oversight of individuals in their specific duties for the club.

The Culver City, California native moved to Arizona following 10 years at KO Sports, Inc. where he was a Certified Player Agent with the NHL Players' Association and served as the company's Director of Hockey Operations & Licensing. In those roles, Ludwig was primarily responsible and involved in all areas of player contract negotiations and salary arbitration, endorsement and licensing contracts, free agency and the NHL Entry Draft while also scouting and identifying elite hockey prospects in both Western Canada and the United States.

Ludwig, who is both a United States and Canadian citizen, attended the University of Colorado Boulder where he won an American Collegiate Hockey Association (ACHA) National Championship in 2005 and received his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Communications in 2008. Ludwig later earned his Juris Doctor (J.D.) from the University of Denver, Sturm College of Law in 2012 and is a member in good standing of the Colorado Bar Association.

David and his wife, Ellen, welcomed their first child, Benjamin, in February 2025 and currently reside in Salt Lake City with their dogs, Dolly and Izzy.

LARRY PLEAU

SENIOR ADVISOR TO THE GENERAL MANAGER

---

Larry Pleau is in his third season with the Utah Mammoth. He was originally named as Senior Advisor to the General Manager on August 6, 2021 with the Arizona Coyotes.

Pleau is a three-time Stanley Cup Champion and was inducted into the United States Hockey Hall of Fame in 2000 and was also honored as a recipient of the Lester Patrick Trophy for outstanding service to hockey in the United States in 2002. Pleau was assistant general manager of the 2002 U.S. Olympic team, which won the silver medal. He also served as general manager of Team USA at the 2003 and 2004 IIHF World Championships and the 2004 World Cup of Hockey.

Pleau brings extensive NHL front office experience to the Mammoth. He was named general manager of the St. Louis Blues on June 9, 1997, and helped the Blues win the NHL's President's Trophy in 1999-2000. Pleau served as GM of the Blues from 1997-2010 and worked in the team's scouting department after that. He was part of the team's front office when St. Louis won the 2019 Stanley Cup.

Pleau joined the Blues after spending eight seasons with the New York Rangers organization where he last served as vice president of player personnel and helped the Rangers capture the Stanley Cup in 1993-94.

The Lynn, Massachusetts native also spent 17 seasons with the Hartford Whalers organization in a variety of roles including player, assistant coach, head coach, general manager and minor league general manager and head coach. He was instrumental in the Whalers drafting Ray Ferraro, Ron Francis, Kevin Dineen and Ulf Samuelson.

Pleau played three NHL seasons with the Montreal Canadiens, totaling 9-15-24 in 94 games and was part of Montreal's 1971 Stanley Cup title. He became the first player signed by the Whalers of the World Hockey Association (WHA). Pleau recorded 157-215-372 in 468 career WHA games with the Whalers. The former center represented the United States at the 1968 Olympics, on the 1969 U.S. National Team and at the 1976 Canada Cup.

COACHING STAFF

ANDRÉ TOURIGNY

HEAD COACH

André Tourigny is entering his third season with the Utah Mammoth. Tourigny, the first head coach in franchise history, was originally named head coach of the Arizona Coyotes on July 1, 2021, and continued in his role upon Smith Entertainment Group's acquisition of their new NHL team in April 2024.

Tourigny has played an integral role since his appointment in helping develop Clayton Keller, Lawson Crouse, Nick Schmaltz, Dylan Guenther, Logan Cooley, Jack McBain, Barrett Hayton, and Karel Vejmelka into core players for the organization.

Currently the fourth-longest tenured head coach in the NHL, Tourigny led the Mammoth to their first appearance in the Stanley Cup Playoffs in 2025-26, coaching Utah to a 43-33-6 mark (92 points). During Utah's inaugural season, he led his group to a 38-31-13 mark (89 points) mark which was good for a 12-point improvement from the previous season. He also helped improve the Coyotes to a 13-point improvement from 2021-22 to 2022-23 and a seven-point jump in 2023-24.

Tourigny is one of two coaches in NHL history to have increased his point total in each of their first five seasons as an NHL head coach, alongside Paul Maurice (Hartford/Carolina).

On the international level, Tourigny was the head coach for Team Canada at the 2024 and 2023 IIHF World Championship where he helped lead Canada to a gold medal in 2023, with a team that included Crouse, McBain, and Michael Carcone. Tourigny also was an Assistant Coach on Team Canada's staff at the 2022 World Championship, when they earned a silver medal, and in 2021 when they won a gold medal.

Tourigny's experience with Hockey Canada also includes guiding the junior team to a silver medal as head coach at the 2021 IIHF World Junior Championship. He previously won a gold medal as an assistant coach at the 2020 IIHF World Junior Championship as well as silver medals as an assistant in 2010 and 2011.

In addition to his five appearances at the World Juniors, Tourigny led Canada's National Men's Summer Under-18 Team to a gold medal as head coach at the 2018 Hlinka Gretzky Cup and won gold as an assistant at the 2008 Ivan Hlinka tournament.

Tourigny joined the Ottawa 67's of the Ontario Hockey League (OHL) as Head Coach and Vice President of Hockey Operations prior to the 2017-18 season. He was the recipient of the Matt Leyden Trophy as OHL coach of the year in back-to-back seasons (2018-19 and 2019-20) as well as the Brian Kilrea Coach of the Year Award as CHL Coach of the Year (2019-20).

Previously, Tourigny also spent three seasons as an NHL assistant coach with the Colorado Avalanche (2013-15) and the Ottawa Senators (2015-16).

The veteran coach was with the Rouyn-Noranda Huskies (2002-13) for 11 seasons and with the Halifax Mooseheads (2016-17) of the Quebec Major Junior Hockey League (QMJHL) for one season. In his 11 years with Rouyn-Noranda, Tourigny's team qualified for the playoffs in all but one season while he posted a 337-336-20 record in 693 regular season games. In 2005-06, Tourigny received the QMJHL Ron Lapointe Coach of the Year Award.

ADAM FOOTE

ASSISTANT COACH

Adam Foote joined the organization as an assistant coach on June 22, 2026.

The Toronto, Ontario native previously was the head coach of the Vancouver Canucks and spent time as an assistant coach with the organization. Over his tenure, Foote helped defensemen Quinn Hughes and Filip Hronek blossom into stars and also strengthened the team's penalty kill over his time.

Before arriving in Vancouver, Foote spent two seasons as the Head Coach of the Kelowna Rockets of the Western Hockey League from 2018-2020.

Foote also spent five seasons with the Colorado Avalanche as a Development Consultant and Defensive Coach, working with Mammoth Head Coach Andre Tourigny from 2013-2015. He was also the Director of Player Development for Team Canada at the 2017 Spengler Cup, winning a Gold medal.

The 19-year NHL veteran recorded 66-242-308 and 1534 PIM in 1,154 career NHL games with the Avalanche, Quebec Nordiques and Columbus Blue Jackets. Foote won two Stanley Cups with the Avalanche (1996, 2001) and was named to Team Canada for the 1998, 2002, and 2006 Winter Olympics, winning a gold medal during the 2002 games in Salt Lake City.

JOHN MADDEN

---

John Madden has been an assistant coach on Andre Tourigny's staff since July 26, 2022, beginning with the Arizona Coyotes, and now with the Utah Mammoth.

Madden joined the Coyotes from the San Jose Sharks where he served as an assistant coach from 2020-22. He was named to San Jose's coaching staff on September 22, 2020.

The 52-year-old Madden spent three seasons as head coach of the Cleveland Monsters (AHL) from 2016-19. He guided Cleveland to a 101-99-19-9 record in his three seasons, including an appearance in the second round of the Calder Cup Playoffs in 2018-19.

The Toronto, Ontario native previously worked parts of three seasons with the Florida Panthers as an assistant coach from 2013-16. Madden also spent time as a pro scout with the Panthers and Montreal Canadiens following his retirement in 2012.

The 13-year NHL veteran registered 165-183-348 in 898 career NHL games with the New Jersey Devils, Chicago Blackhawks, Minnesota Wild and Panthers.

Madden is a three-time Stanley Cup Champion after winning with New Jersey in 2000 and 2003 and with Chicago in 2010. He won the NHL's Frank J. Selke Trophy as the League's top defensive forward with the Devils in 2001 and finished second in voting in 2003, 2004 and 2008.

Madden played four years at the University of Michigan where he set the NCAA record for most career shorthanded goals (23). He was a member of the 1996 NCAA championship team and was selected to the CCHA First All-Star and NCAA West First All-American Teams during his final season. Madden also led the Wolverines to three Central Collegiate Hockey Association titles.

BLAINE FORSYTHE

---

Blaine Forsythe transferred to Utah from the Arizona Coyotes, where he joined the organization as an assistant coach on July 12, 2023. Forsythe leads the club's power play unit, which finished 10th in the NHL and was third-best on the road in 2024-25.

Forsythe came to Arizona from the Washington Capitals where he served as an assistant coach from 2009-2023.

The Calgary, Alberta native was responsible for the Capitals centers and power play, which ranked as the best in the NHL (21.8%) under his guidance from 2009-10 through 2022-23. The Capitals ranked in the top-10 in the NHL in eight of the last 12 seasons and were the top-ranked unit in 2009-10, 2012-13, 2013-14 and 2014-15. During the 2018 Stanley Cup playoffs, the Capitals power play converted at a 29.3% mark in 24 games to help the club win the franchise's first ever Stanley Cup.

Forsythe took over the responsibility of working with the team's centers prior to the 2014-15 season and helped improve the team's face-off win percentage from 48.4% to 51.2% the next season.

Forsythe joined the Capitals as a video coach prior to the 2006-07 season and was an integral member of the Capitals staff that helped lead the Capitals to the 2007-08 Southeast Division championship. He was promoted to a position as an amateur scout in 2008-09 before returning to the coaching staff in 2009-10. In his first season back as an assistant coach, Forsythe helped the team win the Presidents' Trophy and the Southeast Division championship.

Prior to joining the Washington organization, the Calgary, Alberta, native worked for the Calgary Hitmen from 1998-2006, where he served as both an assistant general manager (1998-06) and an assistant coach (2002-06). Forsythe helped lead Calgary to a WHL championship in 1999.

Forsythe received a business degree from the University of Minnesota and played Division II hockey at the University of Minnesota, Crookston. He played junior hockey with the CJHL's Pembroke Lumber Kings in Pembroke, Ontario.

Forsythe and his wife, Ivy have a daughter, Sloan, and sons, Bodhi and Cash.

COREY SCHWAB

GOALTENDING COACH

---

Corey Schwab enters his third season with the Utah Mammoth organization after spending 10 years with the Arizona Coyotes and eight seasons as the Coyotes' NHL goaltending coach.

Last season, goaltender Karel Vejmelka led the NHL in games played (64), games started (63) and finished second in wins (38) among all NHL goaltenders. His strong play in net for the Mammoth was a driving force behind the club's first-ever appearance in the Stanley Cup playoffs.

In 2024-25, Vejmelka had a breakout campaign in his fourth season working with Schwab, winning a career-high 26 games and being rewarded with a five-year contract extension. Vejmelka also started 23 consecutive games which was the longest streak in the NHL since the 2014-15 season and was voted Team MVP by his teammates.

From 2022-24, Connor Ingram became the Coyotes top goaltender under Schwab's tutelage winning 23 games and posting six shutouts which were tied for the NHL lead during the 2024 campaign. Ingram was also named the NHL's First Star of the Week for the week ending on Dec. 3. He stopped 89 of the 94 shots he faced, going 3-0-0 with a 1.63 goals-against average and .947 save percentage to help the Coyotes extend their winning streak to four games, all against the past four Stanley Cup champions. Ingram also won the NHL's Masterton Trophy at the end of the season.

Between 2017-2020, Schwab helped Coyotes' goaltenders finish among the NHL's leaders in both GAA and SV%. In 2019-20, Kuemper finished third with a 2.22 GAA and .928 SV% and was named to the Pacific Division team for the 2020 NHL All-Star Game. In 2018-19, Kuemper ranked sixth with a 2.33 GAA and a .925 SV%. During the 2017-18 regular season Antti Raanta finished second in the League with a 2.24 GAA and a .930 SV%.

The 55-year-old Schwab spent seven seasons with the San Jose Sharks organization as a goaltending development coach where he oversaw the goaltending coaching duties for Sharks prospects. The North Battleford, Saskatchewan native also spent three seasons (2005-08) as associate goaltending coach and scout for the Tampa Bay Lightning.

Schwab played eight NHL seasons and registered a 42-63-13 record with a 2.89 GAA and an .896 SV% in 147 games with the New Jersey Devils, Lightning, Vancouver Canucks and Toronto Maple Leafs. He was a member of the 2003 Stanley Cup Champion New Jersey Devils, as well as the 1995 Calder Cup Champion Albany River Rats.

A native of Lyndhurst, Ohio, Zenobi began his career in hockey in 1994 with the Cleveland Lumberjacks of the International Hockey League (IHL) and has also worked with Team USA at the 2013 World Championships in Helsinki, Finland where he earned a bronze medal.

Zenobi, who is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association, the Arizona Board of Athletic Training, and the Professional Hockey Athletic Trainers Society, earned his Bachelor of Science degree in Sports Medicine from Mount Union College and a Master of Science degree in Exercise Science from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.

Dave and his wife of 32 years, Dawn, reside in Phoenix while their son, Joey, attends Arizona State and their son Domenic resides in Coral Springs, Florida.

BILL NERVIG

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Bill Nervig is in his third season as Utah's Assistant Athletic Trainer. He joined the club from Arizona where he has held the same role since the 2021-22 regular season.

Nervig came to the Coyotes from the Tucson Roadrunners, the Club's American Hockey League (AHL) affiliate. He joined the Roadrunners in August of 2019 as the team's Head Athletic Trainer after spending the previous 20 years as the Head Athletic Trainer, Equipment Manager and Production Manager for the Omaha Lancers of the United States Hockey League (USHL).

Nervig also spent four years as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Omaha Beef of the Champions Indoor Football League.

The Omaha, Nebraska native is a graduate of Northwest Missouri State University where he studied education and biology. He played football (defensive end) his freshman year before switching to the medical side of sports and was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Bill and his wife, Nichole, have four children: daughter Alex, 26 and sons William, 25, Sawyer (15) and Keaton (10).

MARK PACKWOOD

REHABILITATION COORDINATOR

---

Mark Packwood begins his third season with the Utah Mammoth after joining the Arizona Coyotes in the same role in August 2021.

A Registered International Sport Physical Therapist, Packwood joined the Coyotes after three years with the Windsor Spitfires of the Ontario Hockey League, where he served as Head Trainer/Physiotherapist and Strength & Conditioning Coach from 2018–2021. During his time in the OHL, he also served as the medical liaison for the OHL Trainer Committee.

Outside of hockey, Packwood worked as a staff physiotherapist at the prestigious Fowler Kennedy Sport Medicine Clinic from 2014–2021. Since 2024, he has served on the PHATS education committee, helping advance the knowledge and education of NHL therapists.

Packwood has also worked with Hockey Canada, serving as Head Therapist for the Men's U17 tournaments in 2017 and 2018 and as an Assistant Therapist at the U18 Hlinka-Gretzky Tournament in 2019.

Before pursuing a career in sports medicine, Packwood played major junior hockey as a goaltender in the OHL with the Kitchener Rangers and Oshawa Generals from 2004–2008. He also represented Team Ontario at the Men's U17 level and was invited to the U18 Hlinka camp.

Packwood earned his Bachelor of Kinesiology from Brock University in 2012, followed by a Master of Physical Therapy from Western University in 2014 and a Master of Clinical Science in Advanced Health Care from Western University in 2018.

Outside of hockey and physical therapy, Packwood is an avid road cyclist and enjoys cars and exploring good food. He and his wife, Meagan, reside in Holladay, Utah.

DEVAN MCCONNELL

HIGH PERFORMANCE DIRECTOR

---

Devan McConnell is in his third season with the Utah Mammoth. He spent the previous four seasons with the Coyotes as the team's High Performance Director.

In his role, McConnell oversees the performance department, whose aim is to maximize performance, minimize injury risk, optimize fitness and nutrition levels, and execute comprehensive training regimens for all Utah Mammoth and Tucson Roadrunners (AHL) players and prospects.

McConnell also spent time with the New Jersey Devils where he served as the team's Director of Performance Science and Reconditioning. In this role, he oversaw the integration and application of sport and performance science technologies, systems and practices. McConnell also assisted with the day-to-day performance training of all NHL athletes in the Devils organization, the return-to-play training of injured athletes and the organizational vision and directive of the Performance department at both the NHL and AHL levels.

Prior to his time in New Jersey, the Lake Stevens, Washington native previously served as the Head of Hockey Performance and Sport Science at the University of Massachusetts Lowell. He was responsible for the oversight and development of all aspects of physical development for the ice hockey team.

McConnell also previously served as the Sports Performance Coordinator at Stanford University from 2008-11 where he worked closely with the women's basketball team as well as the men's and women's volleyball programs. All these teams were regulars in the NCAA tournament. During his time at Stanford, women's basketball competed in three consecutive Final Fours while the women's volleyball team competed in two Final Fours and the men's volleyball program won the 2010 NCAA Championship.

MITCH STEWART

HEAD PERFORMANCE COACH

Mitch Stewart is in his third season as the Head Performance Coach of the Utah Mammoth. He previously spent the past three seasons in the same role with the Arizona Coyotes, joining the organization in September 2021 from Total Package Hockey and the London Knights (OHL) where he worked for 11 years.

Stewart managed the Knights' in-season training as the team's Head Strength and Conditioning Coach. During the off-season, he would train NHL players at Total Package Hockey's training center. He was responsible for designing and coaching players through comprehensive strength and conditioning programs.

Stewart completed his diploma in fitness and health from Fanshawe College as well as a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Western University. He is continuing his education through a variety of specialized programs designed for high performance sport.

He and his wife, Michelle, reside in Draper, Utah with their son Everett.

RYAN WYSOCKI, MS, CSCS, CPSS

ASSISTANT PERFORMANCE & RECONDITIONING COACH

Ryan Wysocki is in his third season with Utah as the team's Assistant Performance & Reconditioning Coach. He spent three seasons in the same role with the Arizona Coyotes before the team moved to Utah.

Wysocki came to Arizona from the Chicago Wolves of the American Hockey League (AHL), where he served as their Head Strength & Conditioning Coach in 2020-21. He previously held the same role with the Charlotte Checkers (AHL) for three seasons before the Carolina Hurricanes changed primary affiliation to Chicago; this tenure included the team's 2019 AHL Calder Cup Championship season.

Wysocki was born and raised in Grand Rapids, Michigan, where his family still resides. Ryan and his wife Kiera McMorrow-Wysocki, originally from Phoenix, were married in 2026.

CARL BOMBARDIER

HEAD PERFORMANCE NUTRITION COACH

Carl Bombardier is entering his third season as Utah's Head Performance Nutrition Coach after spending three seasons in the same role with the Arizona Coyotes.

Bombardier, 36, joined the Coyotes from the Seattle Seahawks where he acted as a sports dietitian for the NFL team. He began his sports nutrition career in 2017 with the Oakland Raiders, where he was a performance dietitian intern.

After a six-month stint in New Zealand, Bombardier had stops at Clemson University, Texas Tech, Fortius and SCIENCED Athletics on top of running his private practice that offers sports nutrition and strength and conditioning services.

A native of Valcourt, Quebec, Bombardier played three seasons in the Manitoba Junior Hockey League (MJHL) for the OCN Blizzard and then suited up for the University of Wisconsin-Stout (NCAA-DIII) varsity hockey team, where he graduated Summa Cum Laude in Health, Wellness and Fitness. He then pursued his master's degree at the University of Utah, where he graduated with honors from their Coordinated Master's Program in Dietetics and Sports Nutrition.

He's a Registered Dietitian Nutritionist (RDN) through the Commission of Dietetics Registration, a Certified Specialist in Sports Dietetics (CSSD), a Certified Strength and Conditioning Coach (CCSC) through NSCA and a Certified Kinanthropometrist via the International Society for the Advancement of Kinanthropometry (ISAK-II).

AHL COACHING STAFF

STEVE POTVIN

HEAD COACH, TUCSON ROADRUNNERS

Steve Potvin was named Head Coach of the Tucson Roadrunners, the Arizona Coyotes' American Hockey League (AHL) affiliate on August 16, 2022. The Roadrunners remained Utah's affiliate after Smith Entertainment Group's acquisition of the Coyotes in April 2024.

The 51-year-old Potvin enters his tenth season with the Roadrunners where he was named assistant coach prior to the 2017-2018 season. He was named associate head coach for the 2021-2022 season.

As Roadrunners assistant coach, the team captured Pacific Division Championships during the 2017-2018 and 2019-2020 seasons and have made three consecutive playoff berths since Potvin took over behind the bench permanently in 2022-23. In addition, 25 Roadrunners have made their NHL debuts with Arizona and Utah since Potvin joined the Tucson staff.

Last season, Potvin led the Roadrunners to a third consecutive playoff season, leading Tucson to a 34-32-4-2 mark. The Roadrunners finished ninth in the AHL with a 19.6 PP%, which was the highest mark under Potvin as a Head Coach.

The Roadrunners again qualified for the Calder Cup playoffs in 2023-24, falling to the Calgary Wranglers in the first round. Goaltender Matt Villalta led the AHL with 31 wins while forward Josh Doan led all AHL rookies with 26 goals scored. Both players were named to the 2024 AHL All-Star Game and made their NHL debuts for the Arizona Coyotes.

In 2022-23, Tucson qualified for the Calder Cup playoffs in the club's first season under Potvin, falling to the Coachella Valley Firebirds in three games. Under Potvin, Roadrunners forward Michael Carcone led the AHL in scoring with 31-54-85 in 65 games played, winning the Jon B. Sollenberger Trophy. Carcone set franchise records in goals, assists, points, and power-play goals (14).

During the 2021-2022 season, Tucson's power-play, under the direction of Potvin, set a team record by converting on 21.5-percent of their chances and finishing seventh in the 31-team American Hockey League in that department. The 2019-2020 Roadrunners finished fourth in the league in goals-per-game at 3.41 and featured three of the league's top 15 scorers under Potvin's direction of the forwards.

Potvin worked with the Coyotes as a skills coach in 2016-2017, focusing on player assessment and individual skill improvement with players at both the NHL and AHL levels.

Potvin joined the Coyotes after a 16-year professional career that included 478 professional American Hockey League (AHL) and top European league games.

The former forward registered 31-44-75 in 158 career AHL contests. Potvin collected 133 goals and 184 assists in 350 games over 10 seasons in Europe.

Steve and his wife, Nada, have three children: Max (22), Nash (19) and Eliana (16).

JOHN SLANEY

ASSISTANT COACH, TUCSON ROADRUNNERS

John Slaney is in his tenth season as an assistant coach with the Tucson Roadrunners. Slaney previously spent two seasons as an assistant coach with the Arizona Coyotes and four seasons as an assistant coach with the Portland Pirates (AHL). He started with the Pirates in 2011-12 after finishing his playing career with Plzen HC (Czech) following the 2010-11 season.

Leaving his mark as one of the best defensemen in AHL history, Slaney began his coaching career with a wealth of accolades. He was a two-time recipient of the Eddie Shore Award (given annually to the AHL's top defenseman) with the Philadelphia Phantoms in the 2000-01 and 2001-02 seasons. He also won a Calder Cup championship with the Phantoms in 2005.

He was inducted into the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins Hall of Fame in 2016. A member of the Penguins inaugural team, Slaney appeared in 89 games with Wilkes-Barre/Scranton during parts of two seasons (1999-2001), recording 42-68-110.

Slaney became the AHL's all-time leading scorer as a defenseman in 2005-06 until his mark (519 career points) was surpassed by Oklahoma City's Bryan Helmer. Slaney also played in 29 games and posted 14-13-27 for Portland during the 1993-94 Calder Cup championship season.

During his career in the NHL, Slaney totaled 22-69-91 in 268 games with the Washington Capitals (1993-95), Colorado Avalanche (1995-96), Los Angeles Kings (1995-97), Phoenix Coyotes (1997-98), Nashville Predators (1998-99), Pittsburgh Penguins (1999-00) and Philadelphia Flyers (2001-02; 2003-04). Slaney also skated in 14 games for the Capitals (1993-94), Penguins (1999-00), and Flyers (2001-02) during the Stanley Cup Playoffs where he netted two goals and registered an assist.

The 54-year-old native of St. John's, Newfoundland was originally drafted by Washington in the first round (ninth overall) of the 1990 NHL Entry Draft.

He and his wife, Brenda, have a son, Tyler, and daughter, Julia.

ANDREW AGOZZINO

---

Andrew Agozzino begins his first season as an assistant coach with the Tucson Roadrunners and enters his third year with the organization.

Agozzino previously spent two seasons as a player for the Roadrunners, registering 39-43-82 and 78 penalty minutes (PIM) in 111 games as an alternate captain for the club. The forward also skated in two games with the Utah Mammoth during the 2025-26 season.

A native of Kleinburg, Ontario, Agozzino played 14 professional hockey seasons from 2012-2026. He appeared in 53 NHL regular season games over eight seasons with the Mammoth, San Jose Sharks, Ottawa Senators, Anaheim Ducks, Pittsburgh Penguins, and Colorado Avalanche. He also played 847 AHL games during his professional career, being named to three AHL All-Star games.

Andrew and his wife, Julia, have a son, Hudson, and daughter, Harlow.

BROADCASTERS

MATT MCCONNELL

TELEVISION PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Matt McConnell enters his third season with Utah as the team's TV play-by-play announcer.

Prior to joining the Utah broadcast team, McConnell was the TV voice of the Arizona Coyotes for 13 seasons. He also called all the TV play-by-play for the Atlanta Thrashers over two separate stints (2009-2011) and from 1999 (their inaugural season in the NHL) through 2003 before moving on to the Minnesota Wild where he called NHL action for two seasons (2003-2005).

Last season, McConnell called his 2,000th NHL game on December 8, 2025 vs. the Los Angeles Kings.

McConnell got his start in the NHL in 1993 when he was named as the radio voice of the expansion Mighty Ducks of Anaheim. He worked with the Ducks through 1996 when he became the radio play-by-play announcer for the Pittsburgh Penguins from 1996-1999. McConnell has also covered the NHL playoffs for NHL Radio and Westwood One, the Stanley Cup Final for NHL International and the 2009 IIHF World Junior Championship for the NHL Network.

From 2005-06 to 2008-09, he served as the lead play-by-play announcer for CBS College Sports' college hockey broadcasts. During this time, McConnell also called college basketball, football and lacrosse for the network and hosted their coverage of the NCAA lacrosse championships. He also played the role of fill-in broadcaster for the NBA on TNT in 2001. In addition to his involvement with CBSSN, he also calls games for Pac-12 Networks on a free-lance basis.

McConnell's accolades in the broadcasting industry include being named the 2013 Arizona Sports Broadcaster of the Year by the National Sports Media Association (he was a finalist for the same award in 2020). He also won a pair of regional sports Emmys involving his work on Thrashers telecasts in 2002 and 2003, was nominated for a regional sports Emmy in 2010, and was a finalist for 1994 Broadcaster of the Year by the Southern California Sports Broadcasters Association while working for the Ducks.

McConnell is a graduate of Michigan State University where he earned a Bachelor's degree in Telecommunication with major emphasis in Economics. He previously taught a sports broadcasting course as a faculty advisor at Arizona State University's Walter Cronkite School of Journalism & Mass Communication.

McConnell and his wife Jennifer split their time between Salt Lake City and Scottsdale, while their daughter Zoe is a fifth grade school teacher in the greater Phoenix area.

DOMINIC MOORE

TELEVISION ANALYST

Dominic Moore enters his third season with Utah as the team's lead TV analyst.

Moore joined the Utah Mammoth after spending three seasons as an NHL analyst for NBC and ESPN television broadcasts, providing insight from the play-by-play booth, between the benches and in the studio.

A native of Thornhill, Ontario, Moore played 15 professional hockey seasons from 2003-19. He appeared in 998 NHL regular season and playoff games as a member of the NY Rangers, Pittsburgh Penguins, Minnesota Wild, Toronto Maple Leafs, Buffalo Sabres, Florida Panthers, Montreal Canadiens, Tampa Bay Lightning, San Jose Sharks and Boston Bruins. Moore served as an alternate captain for the Maple Leafs in 2008-09. Before turning pro, he played four collegiate seasons at Harvard University, earning NCAA First Team All-American honors as a senior while captaining the Crimson.

Moore stepped away from hockey in 2012-13 to care for his wife, Katie, who died after a nine-month battle with a rare form of liver cancer. He returned to the NHL with New York in 2013-14 and scored the only goal in Game 6 of the 2014 Eastern Conference Final, sending the Rangers to their first Stanley Cup Final in 20 years. In recognition of his perseverance, sportsmanship and dedication to hockey, Moore was awarded the NHL's Bill Masterton Trophy.

Moore has two older brothers, Mark and Steve, who also played college hockey at Harvard. Steve played 69 career NHL games over parts of three seasons with Colorado, but his career was cut short due to a concussion and neck injury suffered in March 2004. The Steve Moore Foundation was established in 2011, focused on preventing and treating sport-related concussions and other serious head and neck injuries. Two years later, Dominic established the Katie Moore Foundation in honor of his late wife, to fund life-saving, collaborative research into rare forms of cancer. With help from countless NHL players and alumni, Moore has hosted Smashfest, an annual charity ping-pong tournament benefiting both foundations and their causes, since 2012.

Dominic and his wife Mary have three children.

NICK OLCZYK

TELEVISION ANALYST

Nick Olczyk enters his third season with Utah as one of the team's TV and radio analysts.

Olczyk spent the previous two seasons with the Seattle Kraken as a television color analyst before joining Utah prior to the club's inaugural season. He appeared between the benches for in-game commentary and provided both pre- and postgame studio analysis breaking down and teaching the game of hockey. He began his NHL tenure during the 2021-22 season, providing television and radio analysis for the Chicago Blackhawks.

He also appears on NHL Network Radio and Sports USA Radio throughout the season. Olczyk has been a lead analyst and reporter for NHL Winter Classics and Stadium Series as well as the Stanley Cup Playoffs.

Olczyk started his professional broadcasting career as the lead color analyst for the ECHL's Indy Fuel from 2018-22, and during that time, he also broadcasted college hockey games on NBC Sports Network. In addition to his on-camera experience, he has also worked as an associate producer for NBC Sports Chicago and NHL on TNT broadcasts, as well as producing some of NBC Sports' Olympics coverage in both 2020 and 2022.

Olczyk played two seasons of Division I hockey at Colorado College from 2017-19. He also played for the USPHL's South Shore Kings and NAHL's Minnesota Wilderness from 2015-17, and spent parts of two USHL seasons with Waterloo and Chicago from 2014-15.

SARAH MERRIFIELD

TELEVISION RINKSIDE REPORTER

Sarah Merrifield enters her third season with Utah as the team's TV rinkside reporter.

Merrifield most recently spent more than six years with Fox Sports and Bally Sports from 2017-24. She served as a sideline reporter and pregame show host and covered numerous teams and leagues, including the NHL's Dallas Stars, MLB's Texas Rangers, NBA's Dallas Mavericks, NHL's Arizona Coyotes, MLB's Arizona Diamondbacks, MLB's Seattle Mariners, and Texas high school football.

Merrifield also covered local sports at KTXS and CBS Austin from 2015-17, before beginning her career with regional sports networks. She has received four regional Emmy Awards, including two for her long-form feature storytelling.

Merrifield studied Broadcast Journalism at Syracuse University's S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communication. While in school, she also gained experience covering many of the Orange's teams for Cuse TV.

KIM BECKER

TELEVISION STUDIO HOST

Kim Becker enters her third season with Utah as the team's TV studio host.

Becker spent the 2023-24 season in Colorado as the host of "Avalanche LIVE" on Altitude TV, after starting with Altitude TV as a sports betting host on "You Bet Tonight." While in Denver, she also served as an in-game host for the Denver Broncos and Colorado Rockies, and she became the Broncos' first-ever female PA announcer when filling the role on Nov. 19, 2023.

Becker began her career in sports broadcasting as a digital host and reporter for Sports Illustrated's FanNation, covering college football and the NFL. She also later worked in Tucson, Arizona, as the University of Arizona's football team reporter.

Growing up in Denver, Becker was a competitive figure skater and an avid sports lover during her childhood. After high school, she started her professional career as a performer with Disney On Ice, skating professionally for 10 years across more than 40 countries.

MIKE FOLTA

RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY

Mike Folta joined the Utah Hockey Club as the team's first-ever radio play-by-play announcer prior to the start of the 2024-25 season, making his NHL debut after an impressive four-year rise through the AHL and ECHL. Folta also co-hosts the NashCast Podcast with Tyson Nash and Mammoth Daily with Adrian Denny.

In 2023-24, he was the voice of the Rockford IceHogs, the AHL affiliate of the Chicago Blackhawks, where he helped grow the team's broadcast audience by 57% in his first full season.

Prior to Rockford, Folta was the play-by-play broadcaster for the Atlanta Gladiators (ECHL), where he was named a finalist for the ECHL Broadcaster of the Year in 2021-22. He began his professional broadcasting career in 2020 as a broadcast assistant with the ECHL's Florida Everblades.

A native of Fishers, Indiana, Folta holds a degree in Industrial Engineering from Purdue University.

TYSON NASH

TELEVISION HOCKEY ANALYST | HOST OF NASHCAST

Tyson Nash returns for his third season with the Utah Mammoth as a television analyst and the host of NashCast, a groundbreaking live alt-cast that has evolved into a weekly podcast. The NashCast alt-cast streams on Mammoth+, the SEG hockey platform, while podcast episodes are available on Mammoth+, YouTube, Spotify, and Apple Podcasts.

Known for its raw energy, humor, and unpredictability, NashCast has quickly become a fan-favorite. The show features wide-ranging conversations and incredible storytelling with guests like Hockey Hall of Famers Jeremy Roenick, Chris Pronger, Doug Wilson, and Mike Modano, Mammoth Stars like Dylan Guenther and Liam O'Brien, as well as NHL Commissioner Gary Bettman. One of its signature elements is the NashCrasher—a surprise guest drop-in that often leads to some of the show's most memorable and unscripted moments.

Before joining the Mammoth, Nash spent 15 seasons as the television color analyst for the Arizona Coyotes. He has also appeared on NHL Network during both the regular season and Stanley Cup Playoffs.

As a player, Nash appeared in 374 NHL games with the St. Louis Blues and Phoenix Coyotes, recording 64 points (27-37-64) and 673 penalty minutes. He added five points in 23 Stanley Cup Playoff games. A 10th-round pick by Vancouver in 1994, Nash made his NHL debut in 1999 and was part of the Blues' 1999-2000 Presidents' Trophy-winning team. Nash was also named the Coyotes' Man of the Year in 2004 for his work in the Phoenix community.

Originally from Edmonton, Alberta, Nash won three Memorial Cups with the Kamloops Blazers.

He lives with his wife Kathy and their three children—Madison, Georgia, and Ty.

ADRIAN DENNY

UTAH MAMMOTH RADIO HOST

Adrian Denny enters his third season as the on-air radio host for the Mammoth - hosting pregame, intermission, and postgame shows for Hockey Night in Utah on SEG Media Network affiliates along with co-hosting the team's daily podcast show Mammoth Daily with Mike Folta.

Denny returned home to Utah after spending six seasons (2018-2024) with Utah's American Hockey League affiliate, the Tucson Roadrunners, where he served as the team's radio and television play-by-play announcer while doubling as the Senior Director of Communications and Broadcasting.

Prior to Arizona, Adrian was the radio and television voice of the Utah Grizzlies for 13 seasons. He joined the Grizzlies as an intern in 2002 while attending the University of Utah.

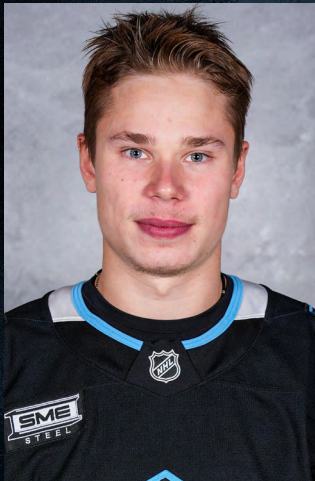

Denny was raised in Salt Lake City where he was a student at Oakridge Elementary, Churchill Junior High School, and Skyline High School.

| APRIL 18, 2024     | The National Hockey League (NHL) announces the establishment of a new NHL franchise in Utah to be owned and controlled by Smith Entertainment Group (SEG), which is owned by Ryan and Ashley Smith. Utah's NHL team will begin competing at Delta Center in the 2024–25 season.                                                                                                                                                 |
| APRIL 24, 2024     | Fans celebrate Utah's new NHL franchise at Delta Center, where they are introduced to General Manager Bill Armstrong, Head Coach André Tourigny and the players for the first time.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| JUNE 7, 2024       | Season tickets go on sale for Utah's inaugural season.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| JUNE 13, 2024      | The NHL and SEG officially close on the agreement that establishes an NHL franchise in Utah and announce the organization's color palette that consists of Rock Black, representing the darkness of night in the mountains and the volcanic rock of Utah's deserts; Salt White, illustrating both the snow on Utah's peaks and the famous salt flats; and Mountain Blue, a representation of Utah's rich winter sports history. |
| JUNE 17, 2024      | Forward Noel Nordh becomes the first contract signing in franchise history.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| JUNE 18, 2024      | SEG appoints Chris Armstrong as the franchise's first president of hockey operations. Armstrong will also serve as an alternate governor.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
| JUNE 28, 2024      | Forwards Tij Iginla (6th overall) and Cole Beaudoin (24th overall) become the first draft picks in franchise history during the first round of the 2024 NHL Draft at the Sphere in Las Vegas.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| JUNE 29, 2024      | Utah acquires defenseman Mikhail Sergachev from Tampa Bay in exchange for defenseman J.J. Moser, forward Conor Geekie and two draft choices.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
| JULY 12, 2024      | Single-game tickets go on sale for Utah's inaugural season.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| AUGUST 1, 2024     | SEG acquires The Shops at South Town in Sandy, Utah. | MAY 7, 2025        | Smith Entertainment Group reveals the new name and permanent identity of Utah's NHL franchise: the Utah Mammoth. More than 10,000 years ago, herds of mammoth claimed Utah as their home, and ever since, the mammoth has embodied strength, momentum, and an earth-shaking presence. These qualities are brought to life by the passion of Utah's hockey fans and mirror the franchise's bold emergence into the NHL. In a process driven by the community, the Utah Mammoth name was chosen by fans during a 13-month process involving four rounds of fan voting and more than 850,000 votes. |
| JUNE 25, 2025      | The Utah Mammoth acquire forward JJ Peterka from the Buffalo Sabres in exchange for forward Josh Doan and defenseman Michael Kesselring, and subsequently sign Peterka to a five-year contract. He becomes Utah's third forward aged 23 or younger to have eclipsed 60 points in 2024-25.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| JUNE 27, 2025      | The Utah Mammoth select forward Caleb Desnoyers with the fourth overall selection in the 2025 NHL Draft at Peacock Theater in Los Angeles, as Desnoyers becomes the highest draft choice in franchise history.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| SEPTEMBER 17, 2025 | The Utah Mammoth unveiled their new state-of-the-art practice and training facility in Sandy, Utah, which is equipped with one of the most extensive arrays available of cutting-edge technology, modern equipment, and player amenities to support the overall well-being and performance of the team. Located on the southeast end of The Shops at South Town, the new 146,000-square-foot facility also features team offices, two new NHL-regulation ice surfaces, plus public spaces that will open in early 2026, including a team store, skate rentals, locker rooms, and concessions.    |

2025-26 SEASON NOTES

YEAR TWO

- Utah earned a 43-33-6 record in 2025-26, tying VGK (2018-19: 43-32-7) for the second-most wins by any NHL franchise in its second season (SEA, 2022-23: 46-28-8).
- The Mammoth have now posted an 81-64-19 record through their first two seasons, marking the fourth-highest points percentage (.552) by any NHL franchise over its first two campaigns. Only Vegas (2017-19: 94-56-14, .616), NY Rangers (1926-28: 44-29-15, .585) and Montreal (1917-19: 23-17-0, .575) finished higher.
- Utah has also become the third franchise to boast five different 100-point scorers over its first two campaigns, alongside Quebec (6) and Hartford (5). Clayton Keller (56-122-178), Nick Schmaltz (53-84-137), Dylan Guenther (67-66-133), Mikhail Sergachev (25-87-112) and Logan Cooley (49-59-108) have all reached triple-digits with the club.

PLAYOFF DEBUT

- The Mammoth clinched their first-ever berth in the Stanley Cup Playoffs on 4/9, as a result of their win over NSH and ANA's win over SJS. They occupied the Western Conference's top wild card spot from 2/2 until the end of the regular season, officially clinching that seed on 4/14.
- Utah became the third team in the last 45 years to make the playoffs within its first two years of beginning play, alongside VGK (2017-18) and SEA (2022-23).
- The Mammoth ranked tied for sixth in points (92), tied for fourth in wins (43), fourth in goal differential (+28) and tied for third in regulation wins (33) among all Western Conference teams in 2025-26.

NOW YOU "C" IT

- Clayton Keller registered a team-high 88 points (26g, 62a) in 82 games this season, and his 178 total points (56g, 122a) with Utah are tied for the 12th-most of any NHL skater since the start of the 2024-25 campaign.
- His 62 assists established a new single-season career high, as he closed the regular season on a franchise-record, 10-game assist/point streak from 3/26-4/16: 4g, 16a).
- Keller joined Quinn Hughes (11 GP with MIN) and Artemi Panarin (10 GP with NYR) as one of only three NHL players to post an assist in at least 10 straight contests in 2025-26, and his 16 assists over that span were the most in the NHL.
- He also recorded 19 consecutive primary assists from 3/3-4/12, which marked the longest run of primary helpers without a secondary assist since 2015-16 (Evgeny Kuznetsov, 19 with WSH).

ROARING TWENTIES

- Dylan Guenther (40), Nick Schmaltz (33), Clayton Keller (26), JJ Peterka (25), Logan Cooley (24) and Lawson Crouse (24) all reached the 20-goal mark in 2025-26, as Utah tied COL and VGK for the second-most 20-goal scorers of any team (CAR: 7).
- Guenther (23) scored a career-high and franchise-record 40 goals, and he was one of only four NHL skaters aged 23 or younger to reach that mark, alongside Macklin Celebrini (SJS, 19: 45g), Wyatt Johnston (DAL, 22: 45g) and Cutter Gauthier (ANA, 22: 41g).
- He also ranked second in the NHL with 19 go-ahead goals (Cole Caufield, MTL: 29), including seven over a span of 13 games from 3/3-3/26.
- Schmaltz registered his first career 30-goal campaign, and his nine goals over the final three weeks of the season (3/22-4/16: 9-4-13 in 12 GP) were tied for the seventh-most in the NHL.
- Crouse matched his single-season career high with 24 goals (also 2022-23 with Arizona), notching his fourth career 20-goal campaign and doubling his 81-game total from Utah's inaugural season (2024-25: 12g).
- Cooley became the fourth active American player to net at least 20 goals in each of his first three NHL seasons, alongside Auston Matthews (TOR, 10 from 2016-26), Jack Eichel (BUF, 5 from 2015-20) and Patrick Kane (CHI, 13 from 2007-20).
- Kailer Yamamoto added 13 goals in 59 games in 2025-26, his highest total in any campaign since 2021-22 (20 with EDM). He enters the postseason with the third-most career playoff points (3-9-12) of any Mammoth forward.

2025-26 SEASON NOTES

SIGNED, SEALED, DELIVERED

- Logan Cooley (eight years, 10/29), Nick Schmaltz (eight years, 3/11) and Michael Carcone (two years, 3/20) all signed contract extensions with Utah this season.
- Cooley tallied 43 points (24g, 19a) in 54 games, and despite missing 28 games due to an upper-body injury (12/6-2/4), he finished second in multi-goal games (6) and tied for fifth in goals among all NHL skaters aged 21 or younger.
- He recorded a season-high five points (4g, 1a) vs. VGK (11/24), joining Clayton Keller (2/27/25 vs. MIN: 1g, 4a) as the second player in franchise history to register a five-point game.
- Schmaltz set new career highs in goals (33), points (74), power-play goals (11) and multi-goal games (8) in 2025-26.
- He posted an eight-game point streak from 10/15-10/28 (7g, 8a), matching the longest such run of his NHL career set with Utah last season (1/10/25-1/24/25: 4g, 6a in 8 GP).
- Schmaltz also ranked tied for fifth in the NHL in takeaways (45) and logged the fourth-most shorthanded ice time per game (1:28) of any Mammoth forward.
- Carcone set new career highs in assists (15), points (31) and power-play goals (3) while posting the second-highest single-season goal total (16) of his NHL career (2023-24 with Arizona: 21g in 74 GP).
- His 12 goals on the road were tied with Schmaltz for the fourth-most on the team.

RAINING HATS AND DOGS

- The Mammoth scored six hat tricks in 2025-26 (Logan Cooley: 2, Nick Schmaltz: 2, Dylan Guenther: 1, Clayton Keller: 1), tied with NYR for the second-most of any NHL team this season (EDM: 8).
- All six of Utah's hat-trick performances also featured an assist, as the Mammoth became the first team since 2023-24 (TBL: 6) to post at least six four-point hat tricks in a single season. No team has had more than six such efforts since 1992-93 (PIT: 7).
- Cooley and Schmaltz were two of only 17 NHL skaters to score multiple hat tricks this season, and Utah was one of two teams to have two different players accomplish that feat (also CHI: Connor Bedard, Tyler Bertuzzi).
- They scored the team's first two hat tricks within a week of one another, as Schmaltz (10/17 vs. SJS: 3g, 1a) netted the first home hat trick in franchise history before Cooley (10/23 at STL: 3g, 1a) added Utah's first-ever natural hat trick. With all four points coming in the first period, Cooley became the 21st player in NHL history to score a hat trick in the opening 10:55 of any game and just the second player since 2009-10 to tally at least four points over his first 3:45 of ice time in any contest.

- Cooley posted the first four-goal game in franchise history just over a month later (11/24 at VGK: 4g, 1a), and he was one of only three NHL skaters to register a four-goal game in 2025-26, alongside Steven Stamkos (NSH) and Marat Khusnutdinov (BOS).
- Guenther later became the third Mammoth player to score a hat trick (3g, 1a) with the first of his NHL career at NYI (1/1), and Keller recorded his first hat trick with Utah (third of his career) in a four-point effort (3g, 1a) at VAN (4/4).
- The Mammoth went 6-0-0 when a player scored a hat trick in 2025-26, after finishing 0-1-0 in their lone such contest during their inaugural season (Barrett Hayton, 2/22/25 at LAK: 5-3 L).

HOME COOKIN'

- The Mammoth earned a 22-16-3 record at Delta Center this season, surpassing their 18 wins on home ice from 2024-25. They also registered 17 of those 22 wins in regulation, tied for the 11th-most of any NHL team.
- Clayton Keller led the team with 53 points (11g, 42a) on home ice, tying Wyatt Johnston (DAL: 28g, 25a) for the sixth-most home points of any NHL skater. He was also one of only three players with at least 40 assists at home, alongside Connor McDavid (EDM: 48) and Nathan MacKinnon (COL: 40).
- Utah registered a point in every game of its season-long, seven-game homestand from 1/7-1/21 (6-0-1), marking the longest home point streak in franchise history (previous: 4 GP, four times).
- The Mammoth posted four straight wins over TOR (1/13), DAL (1/15), SEA (1/17) and PHI (1/21) on that homestand, tying for the longest home win streak in franchise history and their longest such run in 2025-26 (also 2/4/25-2/27/25, 10/15/25-10/21/25).

2025-26 SEASON NOTES

MAKING THEM PAY

- Utah went 46-for-230 (20.0%) on the power play during the regular season, with a league-high 14 tallies on the man-advantage over the final three weeks of the season (3/24-4/16: 14-for-37, 37.8%).
- The Mammoth set a new franchise record with power-play goals in eight consecutive contests from 3/24-4/11 (12-for-29: 41.4%), topping their seven-game run from last season (12/8/24-12/22/24: 9-for-25, 36.0%). Only DAL (12 GP from 1/31-3/14) posted a longer such streak in 2025-26.
- Nick Schmaltz (11) and Dylan Guenther (9) ranked first and second on the team in power-play goals, respectively, as Schmaltz established a new single-season career high in that category (previous: 10 with Arizona in 2023-24).
- Schmaltz became the fourth player in franchise history to score two power-play goals in a single game vs. WPG (4/14), accomplishing the feat for the second time in his NHL career (also 1/9/18 at OTT, with CHI).
- Clayton Keller (3-24-27) paced the Mammoth in power-play points for the second consecutive campaign, while Mikhail Sergachev finished tied for sixth in power-play points (26) and tied for seventh in power-play assists (21) among NHL blueliners.
- Utah's power play allowed only three shorthanded goals in 2025-26, tied with CHI for the second-fewest in the NHL (NSH: 2).

STARGAZING

- Logan Cooley (Second Star, 10/27) and Karel Vejmelka (Third Star, 1/19 and 2/6) both received their first career NHL Star of the Week honors in 2025-26.
- Cooley tallied eight points (5g, 3a) in four games from 10/21-10/26, helping the Mammoth to a perfect 4-0-0 record. He posted back-to-back multi-goal performances for the first time in his NHL career, with a natural hat trick (3g, 1a) at STL (10/23) and three points (2g, 1a) at MIN (10/25).
- Vejmelka was first honored after posting three straight wins from 1/13-1/17, and again after opening the month of February with a .943 save percentage over back-to-back victories (2/2-2/4: 50/53).
- Cooley and Vejmelka are two of four Utah players to receive Star of the Week recognition, alongside Dylan Guenther (First Star, 10/14/24) and Barrett Hayton (Third Star, 1/27/25).

MOUNTAIN HIGH

- Numerous Mammoth skaters established new career highs in these statistical categories in 2025-26 (excluding rookies):
  - Goals: Guenther (40), Schmaltz (33)
  - Assists: Keller (62), Marino (32), Carcone (15), DeSimone (6)
  - Points: Schmaltz (74), Guenther (73), Marino (36), Carcone (31), DeSimone (8)
  - Game-Winning Goals: Schmaltz (9), Keller (6), Cooley (3), Durzi (2), Marino (2)
  - Multi-Point Games: Keller (28), Guenther (20), Schmaltz (20), Crouse (8), Marino (5)

ON POINT

- Utah's defensemen combined for 185 points (30g, 155a) in 2025-26, totaling the seventh-most assists of any NHL blue line.
- They accounted for 11.2% of the team's goals, 35.3% of the team's assists and 26.2% of the team's points. Only VAN (36.0%) and WSH (35.5%) had a higher percentage of their assists come from defensemen.
- Mikhail Sergachev led Mammoth blueliners with 59 points (10g, 49a), marking his second-most assists and points in any season during his NHL career (2022-23 with TBL: 10-54-64).
- He found the scoresheet in 15 of his final 21 games (2/25-4/16) and ranked tied for second in assists (20) and tied for eighth in points (21) among all NHL defensemen over that stretch.

BEAR-ING FRUIT

- For the second consecutive season, Mammoth head coach André Tourigny set new personal career highs in wins (43), points (92) and points percentage (.561).
- He has now improved upon his prior win and point totals in each of his five campaigns as bench boss for Arizona and Utah (2021-22: 25-50-7, 57 points; 2022-23: 28-40-14, 70 points; 2023-24: 36-41-5, 77 points; 2024-25: 38-31-13, 89 points).
- Tourigny celebrated his 400th career game as a head coach vs. EDM (3/24), after beginning his head coaching tenure with the Coyotes ahead of the 2021-22 season. He is now the fourth-longest tenured head coach in the NHL, behind only Jon Cooper (TBL), Jared Bednar (COL) and Rod Brind'Amour (CAR).

2025-26 SEASON NOTES

CZECH MATES

- Karel Vejmelka (38-20-3) and Vítěk Vaněček (5-13-3) were one of only eight NHL goaltending tandems to play all 82 of their team's games in 2025-26.
- Vejmelka led all NHL netminders in games played (64) and starts (63) and finished second in wins (Andrei Vasilevskiy, TBL: 39), setting new single-season career highs in all three categories. His 38 wins were the most in a single campaign by any Czech netminder since Dominik Hašek posted the same total with DET in 2006-07.
- Vejmelka was also the first NHL goaltender to reach both 20 and 30 wins this season, and at the time of his 30th win (3/7 at CBJ), he became the first Czech netminder to reach that mark since Vaněček went 33-11-4 with NJD in 2022-23.
- His win over the Blue Jackets also marked the 100th win of his NHL career, and he reached that milestone just one game after Vaněček (3/5 at PHI), as they became the first goaltending duo in NHL history to accomplish that feat in consecutive appearances.

FLYING COLORS

---

- Utah had four representatives at the 2026 Winter Olympics in Milan in February: Clayton Keller (United States), Olli Määttä (Finland), JJ Peterka (Germany) and Karel Vejmelka (Czechia).
- Keller skated in four games to help Team USA win gold for the first time since 1980, and Määttä earned one assist in six contests to capture his second Olympic bronze medal with Finland (also Sochi 2014).
- Peterka tallied four points (1g, 3a) in five games, finishing tied for third in scoring among German skaters.
